FIANCE HAD JILTED HER

the Woman His Wife, but old. Man Refused.

Because of the refusal of the man who had promised to marry her to fulfil that promise, Ida Ikils, twenty-three years old, of No. 611 East Ninth street, to-day attempted to kill herself by swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid while in the magistrate's private room in the Essex Market Court. The woman was taken to Gouverneur Hospital and is in a critical condition.

Beveral weeks ago she complained to Magistrate Deuel, then sitting in the Essex Market Court, that Louis Zaxas, who lived at No. 367 Bowery, had promised to marry her, but although she was about to hecome a mother, he had refused to keep the promise.

The Magistrate told his probationary officer, Policeman Fogarty, to try to effect a reconciliation. Yesterday Folester was an analysis of the market restance in the market station, yesterday while hiding in the dumb-waiter shaft of No. 185 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street. They were met there by Magistrate Hogan, who is sitting in the court. The Magistrate tried to persuade the man to keep his promise, but Zaxas still refused and arose from his chair to leave the room. The woman, who held a newspaper in her hand, jumped to her feet and cried out: "I will end it all." She placed a bottle containing carbolic acid to her mouth, holding the paper in such a position as to hide the bottle, and swallowed half its contents before she could be prevented. Policeman Fogarty jumped towards the woman and managed to knock the bottle from her hands before she could swallow all the poison, he receiving revere burns on his hands.

Zaxas resumed his seat and remained heated throughout the time occupied by physicians from a nearby dispensary in endeavoring to restore the woman. An ambulance was summoned from Gouverneur Hospital and the woman was taken there. The woman's sister, Mrs. Esther Hear, of No. 420 East Sixteenth street, who had accompanied her to court, beby physicians. Later she went home.

The name of the woman is not given out because there is no evidence thus far to show that the fires were not all of accidental origin. Examinations of the woman have been conducted for several days. She has been frank in confessing her record of fire losses and convincing in explaining the circumstances of each fire. No action will be taken by the Fire Department authoritier, but the evidence that has been gathered will be laid before the Directifict. Altorney.

A peculiar feature about the matter is that the woman has been insured under different names. She explained to the Fire Masshal that she had been married several times. Among the companies that have carried policies on her furniture are the Agricultural, Scottish linion, Nassau. Continental, New Hampshire and the Home Fire, of New York.
